Annex

Letter dated 14 October 2005 from the Permanent Representative of Andorra to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Counter-Terrorism Committee

At the request of my Government, I have the honour to transmit to you the second addendum to the fourth report that was submitted by the Principality of Andorra to the Counter-Terrorism Committee pursuant to paragraph 6 of Security Council resolution 1373 (2001) on 11 February 2005 (see enclosure).

My Government will be happy to provide the Committee with such additional information, as it considers necessary.

(Signed) Julian Vila-Coma
Ambassador
Permanent Representative

Enclosure

Second addendum to the replies to the observations and questions concerning the content of the fourth report submitted pursuant to Security Council resolution 1373 (2001)

[Original: French]

In fulfilment of its obligations pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 6 of Security Council resolution 1373 (2001), the Government of Andorra submitted its most recent detailed report on 11 February 2005 in response to the request contained in the Committee's letter of 15 November 2004. On 6 April 2005, the Government of Andorra submitted an initial addendum in which it informed the Committee that on 21 February 2005 the General Council of Andorra approved the text of the new Andorran Penal Code, which entered into force on 23 September 2005.

In this second addendum, the Government of Andorra wishes to inform the Committee that the Principality of Andorra deposited its instrument of accession to the European Convention on Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters on 26 April 2005, and that the Convention entered into force for Andorra on 25 July 2005. Andorra thus became part of a vast network of multilateral cooperation that facilitates the exchange of information and documents in criminal matters among the States Parties to the Convention.
